

SONOMA COAST CHARDONNAY

2018

ABOUT US

Standard Deviation is a small-scale production focused on the purist expression of tiny blocks of Sonoma County's and Napa Valley's premier vineyards. This collaboration between Napa Valley's Josh Peebles and Winemaker Justin Harmon is their opportunity to creatively expand beyond the confines of their other established brands without compromise.

WINEMAKER'S NOTE

A Chardonnay characterized by the balance between the power of the 2018 vintage, and the vibrant, cool-climate nature site. The wine opens with great energy informed by notes of lemon and orange peel, before broadening into an intensely fruited palate dominated by red apple fruit and pie spice. A wine that deftly strikes that balance between power and freshness like only great California Chardonnay can.
